EDISON MEN CONFER WITH SELECTMEN IN PRIVATE

At a closed session Monday evening the two representatives of the Edison Co., who met earlier with the selectmen to discuss the high tension line that the electric firm wishes to cut across the town, met with them again.

Chairman DeFelice said that the Edison men asked that the hearing be closed as they presented three routes to the selectmen for consideration.

Later in the evening the selectmen went into executive session again as they discussed business Mr. Courtney had in Boston that day and the warrant articles. The selectmen are also meeting in executive session every Wednesday evening to discuss the warrant articles.

BUILDING INSPECTOR ANNOUNCES 1957 BUILDING TOTALS

Building Inspector Ernest Rice announced final totals for 1957 building permit estimated valuations this week.

245 permits were issued with a grand total of $7,924,726 valuation. Permits were issued for 13 dwellings at $1,678,500; 55 additions, $56,700; 32 garages, $28,590; 1 church, (Methodist), $127,000; 9 commercial buildings, $124,846; 4 research buildings, $6,000,000; and 1 store, $13,000.

January 1958 permits have been issued for 8 dwellings, 2 additions, and 1 basement with a $100,000 valuation.

Break And Entry On Salem St.

Wilmington — Two new, unoccupied houses on Salem St. were broken into on Tuesday, Feb. 4. Entrance was gained to both houses by forcing the rear cellar doors. No evident damage was inflicted and nothing was found missing from the premises. Officer Kelley is investigating the breaks.

Unlisted Residents Notified

Wilmington — Notices are being sent to persons whose names were found on the 1957 Police listing. Unless they notify the Board of Registrars by mail or the Town Clerk by telephone or personal appearance before March 7, 1958 their name will be dropped from the voting list.

SELECTMEN REQUEST GOVERNOR TO INTERVENE IN BRIDGES SITUATION

Branding the latest tactics of the Boston and Maine Railroad "another stall", Selectman Frank Hagerty motioned Monday evening to telegraph Governor Foster Furcolo and request that he look into the Shawheen Bridge situation. This time, apparently provoked by another weeks delay with no progress toward repairing the bridge in evidence, the entire Board present agreed with Mr. Hagerty. Selectman Charles Black was absent.

Tuesday morning a telegram was sent the Governor, the contents of which follow:

"The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Wilmington request his Excellency's immediate intervention into the emergency problem of the Shawheen Ave. Bridge, which has been closed due to the utter disregard of the public welfare by the Boston and Maine RR."

Mr. Hagerty's action followed a report by Town Manager Courtney that while the RR had agreed "not to pull any more rabbits out of the hat" (Mr. Courtney's words referring to last weeks demand by the RR that the Town be responsible for seeing that the bridge not be "overloaded") the RR still stood by their demand.

Mr. Hagerty scoffed at the suggestion that the Town police the bridge saying, "We'll provide no cop for the B. and M." His remark followed Mr. Courtney's report on a meeting held with Representatives Tanner and Ferguson, Mr. McCarthy, chief engineer of the DPW and three representatives of the B. and M., at which time the railroad agreed not to use any more delaying tactics but said that they still expected the DPW and the town to come up with a plan to re-route heavy traffic.

The Railroad maintains that the Town is responsible for the overloading of the bridge, which is posted for 7 1/2 tons. Chairman DeFelice said that the demand is unthinkable, that a large highway truck weighs 21 tons, an oil truck loaded 38, and a cement truck 60 tons. It would be impossible to bar all these trucks to that side of town, the board agreed.

In Accident

Robert Lessard of Phyllis Ave., Burlington was taken to Choate Hospital in the ambulance following an accident on Burlington Ave., in which he was involved.

At approximately 12 p. m. on Saturday, Feb. 8, a car being operated by Robert Lessard of Burlington and a truck operated by George Morse of Woburn were in collision on Burlington Ave., near Chestnut St. Extensive damage was inflicted on the rear of the truck, owned by the Woburn Wholesale Produce Co., and the vehicle owned by Mr. Lessard was almost a total loss.

Officers Dolan and Ellsworth investigated the accident.

Methodist Basketball Team Wins A Scorchers

The boys of the Wilmington Methodist Basketball team, defeated the team from the First Methodist Church of Melrose, in one of the best fought games of the league. The final score was 97 to 94 in the Wildwood School Gym on Saturday, Feb. 8. Spurred on again by a corps of uniformed cheerleaders the boys played their best. Highlighting the game was the 62 points scored by Wilmington's Phil Tupper — he wasn't missing anything. The rest of the team say that this was his night and kept feeding the ball to him, enabling him to sink some unbelievable shots.

The Wilmington team is now tied with the team from the College Avenue Methodist Church in Somerville for first place with three wins and no defeats to their record. On Saturday, February 15 the local team will play the boys from the Mt. Bellingham Methodist Church in Chelsea in the Chelsea gym. Young people who plan to attend will meet at the church at 6:45 p. m., and transportation will be provided.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HANK FILIPPONE

The bridge on Shawsheen Avenue is still closed to the public and Bridge Lane continues to take a pounding. The holes get wider and deeper, and the shoulders get rounder, causing the street to narrow down to dangerous width. One of Lyons Oil trucks was either stalled or parked at the turn onto Main Street, causing route 150 traffic to make a wide swing over the ramparts of snow placed there by our highway department. Some fun.

The bridges of Toko-Ri presented no greater problems than our own bridges in Wilmington. At best, our bridges were very unsatisfactory. Now, with Shawsheen Avenue bridge closed off, all the bridges handling traffic are catching considerable abuse and it's apparent that come spring, we will have various problems concerning repairs to the approaches and the streets leading to the bridges. Selectman Frank Hagerty seems to be the only Selectman who is anxious to arrive at some favorable solution, at least he brings the problem up every week at the Board meeting. Keep trying, Frank, it's nice to know that you're thinking of us down here. Incidentally, Frank was so irate, that he mentioned that the town send a telegram to his Honor Foster Furcolo, describing the dangerous condition that exists at present.

My nomination for the busiest department in town would be Ernie Rice's department. For the year 1957, Ernie issued 245 building permits which total $8,036,636. In valuation. He also issued 450 electrical permits and 143 plumbing permits, along with 9 sub-standard buildings. Predicting that 1958 will be a peak year, surpassing 1955, Mr. Rice pointed out that for the month of January, 1958, his department has already issued 11 building permits for a total valuation of $100,000. What do you do in your spare time, Ernie?

The question of the billboards has the town stymied. It seems that under existing laws, the Outdoor Advertising Authority has jurisdiction over the local laws. No doubt, the advertising agencies are laughing up their sleeves. There is a bill in legislature to provide amendments which would insure some local control, but by that time Sputnik may have arrived.

WHY IS IT THAT - I always manage to meet the School bus on Lake Street Bridge and have to back all the way down? - There still is a noticeable lack of protection for the many school children who board the bus at the corner of Lake and Shawsheen Avenue?

D.A.V. HI-LITES

Wilmington - The attendance at last Wednesday's meeting was most encouraging. We hope that more members will take an active interest in the Chapter and attend the meetings so that they will have a voice in the administration of their Chapter. Leaving the job to 20% of the membership is not a healthy thing for the chapter or for the individual members. We hope to see many new faces at our future meetings.

In this month of February we pause to celebrate the birthdays of our greatest Americans. Although we know many things about George Washington, one of the lesser known facts is that he instituted the Order of the Purple Heart. He, as a man who had personally experienced the hardships of war, knew the value of the sacrifices made by the Armed Forces in time of war. To quote from from one of the most moving speeches in our history, Lincoln said "The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here." We of the D.A.V. can only hope that the people in our land who control the future of the disabled and hospitalized veterans, will remember the sincere gestures of gratitude from these great men who forged the future of our country out of the sacrifices and suffering of their brothers in arms.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 19. We hope there will be a large attendance. There will be some changes made in the Chapter by-Laws and all who can attend should attend in order to acquaint themselves with the proposed changes and cast their vote either for or against them.

LOOK ALIKE IN LINEN

By JANE ASHLEY

TO MARKET TO MARKET. Mother and daughter are dressed alike in linen blouses spiked with bright red and green applique.

At a recent showing of children's clothes at famous Henri Bendel in New York City there were several mother-daughter outfits. These simple, yet attractive, blouses were among them. Shown here with comfortably full, washable skirts, they're equally at home going to market or wearing at home. The blouse goes well with tights, shorts, slacks and long skirts, too.

The successful sales of these holiday blouses are proof that it doesn't take a complete outfit to please a little girl who longs to look and be like Mommy.

These blouses are made of sheer linen, a material that is once again coming into its own as a popular fabric. To play up the smooth, rich finish of linen and to keep it looking like new, fashion authorities suggest starching very lightly. If you have always thought of starched linen as being uncomfortably stiff, use an instant cold water starch such as Niagara. It dissolves instantly in cold water, gives a smooth, pliable, comfortable finish. Package directions will tell you the quantity to make and the way to use it.

As My Garden Sleeps

By Mari Gold

Any time now salesmen will be knocking on your door with various offers of nursery stock or personal plants. They will take your order and ship the plant to you in time for spring planting. When the knock comes, it would be wiser to say "no" in most cases. Most of the stock received in this manner is so small, or dried out by the time you receive it, it is just a waste of good money.

Another thing to watch closely is the great number of advertisements you will receive in one way or another stating that you may have so many fir trees for just a small sum. These trees are lining out stock and usually are no bigger than a pencil. They are fine if you have a lot of land and are young so that you can allow them to grow for years. A fir tree grows very slowly for the first few years of its life.

These ads are not direct misrepresentation, but may easily fool a newcomer to the game. They will advertise a three or four year old tree and folks who do not understand think they are getting a real bargain, a good size tree very reasonably priced.

Many people think that a tree grows from early spring until frost, but it is not known that this is not so. Their height growth is made only in 40 days of spring and early summer. The leaves of the tree manufacture food on which the tree lives. As rapidly as the leaves produce the food, it makes its way down through the cells of the twigs, branches and stem. A continuous stream of nutritious sap is moving downward. Trees store up a food supply all during the summer so when the leaves are not manufacturing food during the winter, the tree may call on its reserve supply.

Pine trees and grass do not mix. Oak trees are very messy in the fall with their acorns covering the ground. Elms used to be a favorite but the disease has ruined many of them. The Maple tree has few rivals. There are several varieties of the Maple, Norway, Sugar and Red Maples are popular. Birch trees have truly feminine characteristics and are pretty used in groups. The purple beech is used for its color. When landscaping your grounds, or just adding a tree to a planting or lawn, it is better to buy from your local dealer. In this manner, you have more idea of just what you are getting. The local man will also be glad to give you advice on care.

When taking care of your houseplants, did you ever wonder who was the first to grow plants in pots? It has been a fashion handed down for generations. Legend has it that Napoleon collected seeds and while he was at war in Egypt he sent seeds of the Mignonette to Josephine to be planted in the garden. When the Mignonette bloomed it was so sweet scented that Josephine planted some in spots and brought them into the rooms. Josephine set the fashion that spread all over Europe and continued right into our twentieth century.

There are 2 classes into which house plants growers fall. Those who raise them for the love of the plant and those who have just a few indoors for decorative purposes. I fall into both categories as I love to grow them and I feel that they add much charm to a room.

A pretty plant may be obtained by planting dwarf Dahlia Tubers enough now and will grow into a fine flowering plant. I have done this several times. Take a four and one half inch pot and plant the tuber in garden soil. Place on the window sill. When it is three inches tall, pinch it back so that it will grow bushy. Soon buds will appear and bloom until spring.

If your house plants show signs of new growth, then give them a little fertilizer. Any of the plant foods advertised, as they are usually easy to handle and are odorless. Watch for pests, the white fly attacks the Patient Lucy and sucks the juices from the plant (of course it attacks others too). If you have only one or two plants with pests, here is a simple method of getting rid of them. Place a paper bag, inverted, down over the plant, right down tight and tear a small hole in the top of the bag. Have a smoker in the house blow smoke into the bag. Pinch the hole together and let it stand for twenty minutes or so. The nicotine in the tobacco smoke is very effective on the pests. This would be, however, quite a chore if you had more than just a few plants.

THE LIONS ROAR

Last week's meeting was an interesting one and a large percentage of the members were present.

Zone Chairman App brought up the subject of the clothing drive termed "Operation Middle East". This club has a goal of one ton of usable clothing to fill its quota. These articles of clothing are being distributed over in the middle east throughout Jordan, Beirut and along the Gaza Strip. The committee in charge reported that the bundles you folks wish to donate may be left at the following places: Frank Kirby's Shell Station, Bill and Mel's Texaco station, Tony's Country Donut Shop in the square; Wilmington Television and Appliance Center, at the lake and Hersom's Barn on Burlington Ave. They may also be left at the fire station. For pickup service, call the following numbers 8-3501, 8-3346 or 8-3341. A telephone call will have one of the Lions members on their way to pick up your donation.

King Lion, Cushing would like to get as many bundles as possible and asks you, the public, to help us once again in a cause which is surely a worthy one.

The entertainment committee reports that the meeting on the nineteenth of February will be an interesting one, due to the fact there will be a guest speaker for the evening. He will accompany his remarks with an interesting film on the subject of retarded children. I wonder: If Fred's wife has taken the hint and is giving him notes now: If Don would take vocal lessons if he intends to sing in the group: If Pete will try to get even with me now that he reports for a rival paper: If each member will try to send us one bundle of clothing for the drive.

Well, I guess I will have to close for now, so until next week, I will say "see you and so long for now".

EAST MIDDLESEX ASSOC. FOR RETARDED CHILDREN MEETS

Members of the East Middlesex Association for Retarded Children met Jan. 22 at the Wakefield YMCA. Horace Hylan, Area Chairman of the recent fund drive, announced that $11,079 had been raised. Among the many plans for educational projects for the retarded children of the area, a school clinic and adolescent class are planned to be held in Woburn. "We of EMARC, Inc., extend a hearty welcome to all parents of retarded children in Woburn, Winchester, Burlington and Wilmington to bring their youngsters to these classes when they are formed," John McNeill, chairman of the projects committee said.

Following the business meeting, a panel discussion, dealing with "Methods of Teaching Retarded Children" was held. Three special class teachers participated.

The Small Club STAMP COLLECTION

As our stamp collection increases in size, and our knowledge of countries improves, certain stamps will attract our interest more than others. Perhaps certain topics will hold our interest more and this will mean about individual stamps.

For instance, in 1948 a whole "Flock" of stamps were issued by the United States, by actual count, 23 commemorative stamps for regular postage and one commemorative stamp for airmail.

One of the stamps of this long set is called the "Four Chaplains issue". This stamp conveys a powerful message to all of us here in our country, as well as to people in other countries. We believe in freedom of religion, and we can all be friends regardless of our religious beliefs or affiliation. Pictured on this stamp are four chaplains, George L. Fox, Clarke V. Poling, John R. Washington and Alexander F. Goode, who were last seen when their ship went down after being torpedoed in the North Atlantic during the war.

These four chaplains, two Protestant, one Catholic and one Jewish, were on the army transport S.S. Dorchester when she was torpedoed. They refused to leave the ship until all the soldiers and sailors were safely off. But as that was impossible, they kept their word and according to the best possible example of the Brotherhood of Man, they went down with many of their fellows on that ship.

The words on the stamp say "These Immortal Chaplains, Interfaith in Action".

Is not this, in your mind too, a most wonderful message from American Chaplains of different faiths, loving one another, even giving away their own life belts to others so that others could have a better chance for survival at the loss of their own chances and dying together. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends."

Another very meaningful stamp in the 1948 series was the United States-Canada Friendship issue, Aug. 2. This 3c blue stamp shows the Whirlpool Rapids Bridge which connects Niagara Falls, New York with Niagara Falls, Ont. and which was opened Aug. 1, 1848.

The wording on the stamp says, "A Century of Friendship, United States - Canada, 1848 - 1948." This bridge has been a symbol of peace and friendship between the two countries, with the over three thousand miles of border unguarded by soldiers during that time.

For those who collect bridges on stamps this is a "must" issue. The bridge itself is very pretty; the stamps are also. This is another example of how a little stamp can carry a message to the world.

Recently a United States issue said "Religious Freedom in America, 1657, The Pilgrimage Remembrance, 1957." This stamp shows a Puritan hat, a Bible, an old quill pen and an old ink bottle of type in use back in the Puritan days. This stamp is another one of those message bearing issues for ourselves as well as the rest of the world.

ROTARY NEWS

The weekly meeting of the Rotary Club was held at Masonic Hall, with president John Gleason in charge.

After usual opening ceremonies, the president called upon Rev. Stanley Cummings to offer the invocation.

Adrian Durkee introduced the following visiting rotarians: Bill Wilde and Les Whitaker, from Winchester, from Woburn, Tim Walsh, from Malden, Ernie Doucette, from Lawrence, Turner Bridges, from Lowell, Thomas Dowd, from Wakefield, Otto Jones, from Lexington, Harold Wellington, and from Reading, Ed Lappin, Gil Stanford, Ted Knudson, David Malcolm, Merle Westcott, Earl Hobart, and Sid Rubin. Gene Croke introduced his brother Tom, Herb Pickering introduced Charles Webster and Fred Cain introduced Paul Post, Paul Post Jr., and Ed. Moynihan. Singing was led by Dr. Chernoff, accompanied by Tom Dowd at the piano.

This was the last meeting to be attended by Junior Rotarian Parker Prindle, and Robert Cornish. They both thanked the club for giving them the opportunity to be with them, and told how much they received out of attending the meetings.

The resignation of John Cooke was read by the president, and the club voted to accept with regrets. Mr. Cooke was a charter member, and had performed many times for the benefit of the club.

John Elia reported the organization of a chapter of the "Sea Scouts" in Wilmington, and requested on behalf of the Youth Committee that we appreciate a sum of money to help purchase a boat. It was then voted to recommend to the club that $75 be given for this purpose.

The speaker of the day was Ralph Swanson, who was introduced by Henry Foster Mr. Swanson was substituting for the regular speaker, the British Consul, who was unable to attend. Mr. Swanson gave a very interesting talk consisting mostly of the happenings in his household, in regard to the behavior of his children.

WILMINGTON FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

by Fred Kleynen

First off, I would like to ask each and everyone of you to try to understand why we refused to give any "no school" information over 8-3200. As we have stated before in this column in previous weeks, there are only two lines at the fire house and this one (8-3200) is the phone set up for emergency calls only. Take, for example, during the last storm, there were over 285 calls recorded on the regular phone, (83346). When you call on the emergency line, this ties up both lines. You should be able to see what could happen if, by chance, someone had to make an emergency call for a fire and both lines were busy.

So, once again I would like to ask you to pass it on to the youngsters please remember to use 8-3346 when calling in regard to "no school" announcements. There will be absolutely no information of this nature given over 8-3200 as this line is FOR REPORTING FIRES ONLY.

Recently six men from this department along with Chief Boudreau attended a testimonial in honor of neighboring chief Hugh Eames of Reading, upon his completion of 50 years of service to the fire department. Chief Eames was lauded by the selectmen of Reading as well as the visiting chiefs for the fine work he has done in the past 50 years.

He was chiefs and men from as far away as Salem present. Another occasion was the opening of the new station on the west side of Reading, to be known as station 2, presented him with a check and the selectmen presented him with a gift of a matching set of barometer and thermometer. There The association of Reading, Hose "2".

It is with deepest sympathy that we note the passing of Chief DiCorso of the Bedford Air Force Base Fire Dept. Chief Boudreau and Lt. Cushing attended the funeral rites representing this dept. Chief DiCorso was a well-liked man and his passing was a shock to all of us.

Just a few words now on our own defense in regard to pumping out cellars. During the last hurricane, we as a department were out most of the time pumping whenever and wherever needed. As a result, the local pumping companies complained that our department was taking their livelihood. Thus, came a letter from the town hall concerning the problem. This letter states that when a cellar is to be pumped out we are to contact, or have you contact, the local pump companies and then only if their pumps are not available and it is an emergency, can we go into action.

Please, do not think that we are shirking our duties. We are merely following orders from the town hall. Even when we are allowed to pump out cellars, the rates to be charged will be the same as the local pump companies would charge. We do not receive these funds, however, for if we are on duty, we do not receive any extra remuneration and when we are off we only receive the same as if we were at the fire station etc.

Many people seem to think that the chief and his men here at the station are the ones who are at fault and we wish to clarify that feeling now through this column. We have done some pumping this week, but only in cases of extreme emergency.

Your friendly firefighter.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the Alpha will not be published as usual this year. In place of the Alpha the staff is proud to present, with the cooperation of The Billerica Publishing Company, Inc., publishers of "The Wilmington Crusader", Wilmington High-Lites. We hope that the student body will accept this new undertaking.

Wilmington High-Lites will be published weekly within the contents of the "Crusader".

CLASS NEWS

Senior Spotlight:

Rehearsals will soon be under way for the Senior Class Play to be held sometime late in April. From all expectations the play should prove very interesting, both from a financial viewpoint and on the basis of good entertainment.

Under the leadership of Editor Parker Prindle and his associates, the Hourglass for 1958 is being prepared.

Attention Seniors:

Pictures for the yearbook must be taken on or before March 1.

At the class meeting held on January 31, an amendment to the Constitution was unanimously passed. This amendment stated that any Senior who has not paid his dues in full would be excluded from any future activities of the class.

Junior Jottings:

It has been heard that a good time was had by all who attended the Junior Splash recently held at the M. I. T. Pool.

The Junior Class seems to be doing very well this year under the leadership of President Kenny Quast and Advisors Miss Mitchell and Mr. Chiano.

Oratorical Contest:

On Monday, January 20, the finals of the Wilmington Rotary Club Oratorical Contest were held in the Herbert C. Barrows Auditorium. After six fine speeches had been presented, Harold White, a senior, was declared the unanimous choice of the judges.

The subject of the speeches was "What I As A High School Student Can Do To Promote International Goodwill". The six finalists of the contest were: H. White and Wayne Prescott, seniors; David O'Brien, Linwood Kemp, Kenneth Quast and Ted Chiricos, juniors. Paul Butt acted as Master of Ceremonies. The three judges for the contest were Mr. Ralph Ambrose, principal of the Willowood School; Mr. Rudolph Sussman, retired principal of Reading High School; and Mr. John McDonald, a member of the English Department at Burlington High.

After the speeches, while the decision of the judges was being eagerly awaited, Miss Kallil and the Glee Club presented two selections. Harold will leave for Quebec City on February 21, as the guests of the local Rotary Club.

Glee Club:

This year's Glee Club consists of 231 members. There are really three Glee Clubs. The High School Glee Club consisting of 66 members; the Laboratory Chorus with 35 members; and the Junior High Glee Club totaling 130 members. The Glee Club has already proved itself as a capable body this year. This is a credit both to the members themselves and to their director, Miss Lorraine Kallil.

Time Out For Reading:

The publication of the first Alpha of the school year is an excellent time to urge students to explore the riches of their school library. The American public is advised by the various communications media to take "time out" for many activities, but none could be so profitable as reading. A school or university is judged in part by the quality of its library, and a man, too, by his reading background. How good is your score?

The past matters little since school is a place where learning habits are instilled and developed. Now, you can begin a life-long pursuit of knowledge and pleasant experiences by borrowing a book regularly from your school library. At no other time will such a collection be so accessible to so many of you. A wide interest range is offered from current novels to the Great Books, and in non-fiction, from science to biographies. These are your riches for the prospecting!

John J. Collins
Superintendent of Schools

Drama Club:

The Wilmington High School Drama Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday, February 4.

A financial report was given by the club treasurer, Eileen Cotter. It was suggested that the club sponsor a theatre trip during March. Sandra Enos, Barbara Rugolletti, and Sandra Higgins volunteered to investigate the possibility of attending a Harvard University Drama Club presentation.

Plans for a Dramatics Club play, to be given early in the Spring, were also discussed.

Science Club:

The Science Club, under the direction of Mr. Sullivan, is now sponsoring the Science Fair, which will take place on March 21. There are 34 entries in the fair. The Science Fair should prove very interesting this year.

The officers of the Science Club are:

President - Phillip Kavanaugh
Vice-Pres. - Arthur Boudreau
Treasurer - Robert Kerr
Secretary - Robert Hastings
The club consists of 30 members.

Junior Rotarians:

Two new Junior Rotarians were named by Mr. Bernard McMahon, principal of the high school, for the second semester. They are Wayne Prescott and Harold White. They succeed Robert Cornish and Parker Prindle, who were Junior Rotarians for the first semester.

School Spirit:

"It is as an educational institution that a school must stand or fall. If a school is an educational failure, what avails its success in some subordinate thing? No one can take pride in an easy-going school to which anyone can gain admission, and in which anyone can remain regardless of attainment. Students think that neglect of their studies is a wholly personal matter and believe that only they are the sufferers. It is not so. By slack, indifferent work you are lowering the standard of your school, and you are thus disloyal. By your act you say that you do not care to have your school respected. This shows the lack of sense of indebtedness on your part to the corporate body of which you are a member. It means a failure to apply school spirit where it is most needed. It is easier to sing and cheer on some moving occasion, but which does your school need more at your hands?"

from
by Sarah Jean Pond

"Greer's":

There are classes currently being held for grades 11 and 12 of Wilmington High School on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from approximately four o'clock to six o'clock, having one ten-minute break.

Mr. Wright, who is a registered engineer, holds classes for those who elected mechanical drawing courses. This course is particularly interesting, and holds a good future for one with perseverance. Greer Co. has supplied these boys with all their equipment including a drafting board.

Mr. Gillis, conducts another class in blueprint reading and drawing. A great deal of credit is due to Greer and Co. for the giving these boys an opportunity to advance their knowledge in these fields.

Can You Imagine???

Miss Sharp not helping students? Winston Fairfield 5'11"? Mr. Sullivan teaching speech? Virginia Dawson wanting to see a police car? Sandy Enos, with bright red hair? Teachers of W. H. S. not giving homework? Joan Brabant not talking? Mr. DeLoce getting a ticket? Miss Mitchell not knowing how to cook? Janet Smart short and fat? An orderly fire drill? Students running past Mr. Driscoll to lunch?

Basketball:

Although things have been slackening off, the boys have had a very successful year so far. They have a five and four record. Winnie Fairfield has been the spark of the team this year. Credit must be given to all the boys, however, for they could not do as well as they have done unless they considered themselves as a team.

The girls, though less fortunate than the boys, have had a relatively good year. Coach McCarthy is very much pleased with the team. Captain Gwen Fisher was nearly missed for a few games because of an automobile accident. However, she is back and the team is confident of a few more victories.

Cub Pack 59 Receives Achievement Award

At the Annual Blue and Gold Banquet of Cub Pack 59 of the Wilmington Methodist Church, Foster Balser, Neighborhood Commissioner, presented Institutional Representative, Rev. Richard E. Harding, an achievement award. This award was announced at the annual meeting of the Lowell Council of Boy Scouts as being the only achievement award to be given to a Wilmington Unit.

Tony Meads, who was a guest at the banquet presented the pack its 100% Boy's Life placard, and the 1958 charter.

There were over 100 parents and children in attendance, and the dinner was served by the members of the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship. Following the presentation of the awards to the boys by Cub Master, Sidney Kaiser, and committee chairman, Earle Camber, the group saw an AAA movie on safety, and were led in singing by Mr. Harding, and Mr. Silverman who accompanied at the piano.

The pack, which has been meeting at the Wildwood School on the second Friday of each month will begin meeting in the church building the second Friday of March. The members of the pack, the committee and the church express their appreciation to the School Committee and those who have made possible the meeting in the Wildwood School.

Rotary News

The weekly meeting of the Rotary Club was held last Wednesday at the Masonic Hall, with president John Gleason in charge.

After the opening ceremonies, Rev. Stanley Cummings was called upon to offer the invocation. After the luncheon singing was enjoyed, led by Dr. Chernoff, with Roger Hayden at the piano. Adrian Durkee introduced the following visiting rotarians: from Reading, Ted Knudson, Will Perkins, and Norman Bassett, from Winchester, Fred McCormick, Roy Horn, Les Whitaker, and Chubb Howe. Guests of the club were Bernard McMahon, and Larry Cuning.

High School principal Bernard McMahon, introduced the two new Junior Rotarians, Harold White, and Wayne Prescott. Both were contestants in the recent oratorical project, in which Harold White was the winner.

On recommendation of the Board of Directors, the club voted to donate $75 towards the purchase of a boat for the Sea Scouts. This matter was brought to the attention of the club by John Ellis. Dave Elman was appointed chairman of an "On to Dallas" Committee.

The speaker of the day Uno Holmgren was introduced by Ralph Swanson. Mr. Holmgren is being sponsored by a Swedish Rotary Club. He gave a very interesting talk on his country, and also showed slides showing many parts, and different types of people. His talk and pictures were well received by the club.

Zoning Adds Convenience

ADVICE FROM THE HEART

WHEN YOUR HEART FUND
VOLUNTEER CALLS ON HEART SUNDAY
FEBRUARY 23

Planned zoning for more comfort and convenience makes this small, one-story ranch-style home ideal for the modern living style of today's families.

Designed by Architect Rudolph A. Matern, of Jamaica, N. Y., the three-bedroom, one-and-a-half bath house has a "quiet zone," or sleeping wing removed from other living areas, an "activity zone" for entertaining and family get-togethers, and a "service zone" for kitchen, laundry, and "mud room."

The house was designed to fit on a 75- by 100-foot lot, and although it contains less than 1,500 square feet of floor space, does not appear small, thanks to good styling.

Long, low lines are accentuated by a low-pitched roof with a single ridge, and a horizontal planter flanking the front entrance. Light-colored asphalt shingles on the roof tend to create an illusion of greater height and width.

As the plan shows, all three bedrooms are completely private, opening off a central hallway with easy access to a bathroom with double, built-in lavatory.

The "activity zone" includes family room, living room, and dining room. The living room has a fireplace and is placed so that it will not be a traffic thoroughfare. The family room located off the kitchen is handy for informal meals and as a supervised play area.

An important part of the "service zone" is the "mud room," where children and pets can be cleaned up as they enter the house. The "service zone" also has a handy lavatory.

Among construction features specified by the architect are brick veneer and redwood siding, hardwood floors, and thick mineral wool insulation in walls and ceilings. The mineral wool makes the house more economical to heat comfortably, and helps save on installation and operating costs if air conditioning is desired.

Further information, blueprints, and specifications can be obtained from Rudolph A. Matern, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica, L. I., N. Y. Refer to Plan No. 9553.

"Poster Boy" Meets Past President

Former President Hoover, board chairman of the Boys' Clubs of America, receives first copy of 1958 Boys' Clubs poster from Jay Walter "Bud" Morehouse, 8, this year's "poster boy." "Bud," a member of the Mt. Kisco, N. Y. Boys' club, will represent half-million members of the national youth organization during 52nd Boys' Club week celebration this Spring. "Now He Really Belongs," theme of poster, was chosen to emphasize the importance of the "feeling of belonging" which promotes Juvenile Delinquency among members of the national youth organization's 500 clubs.
